

CHEL TENHAM MEET ON FOR TOMORROW

Thirty-two Teams Are Entered in Inter-Scholastic Games at Elkins Park

DIVIDED IN TWO CLASSES

The ninth annual track and field meet under the auspices of the Cheltenham High School will be held tomorrow afternoon in Elkins Park at 2 o'clock. Twenty-two teams have entered the meet.

Last year the event was captured by the Norristown High team, with Cheltenham High and Lansdale High finishing second and third, respectively. This year Cheltenham hopes to finish one rung higher than in last season, and take the Kent cup home. This trophy was put up by S. Kent & Son, and will become permanent possession of the institution that wins it three years in a row.

The meet will be divided into two classes, known as Class A and Class B. Seven schools are entered in Class A, while Class B has seven entries. Lower Merion, Germantown, Lansdale, Radnor, Reading, Norristown and Cheltenham are in the first class. Bryn Athyn, Swarthmore, Downingtown, Abington, Drexel, Lansdale, Germantown, Norristown, Westbury, Upper Merion, Haverhill, Millville, Collingswood, Moorestown and Conshohocken are entered in the second.

New Trophies. Two new cups will be presented to the winner of each race. Tomorrow, while another one will be given to the individual athlete scoring the highest number of points.

The Meadowbrook cup will be given to the winner of Class A. This cup must be won three consecutive years in order to become permanent possession.

The Agate cup will be the property of the team winning the Class B title. This trophy must only be won one year, as does the Meadowbrook cup, which will be presented to the high-scoring athlete.

The feature event of the day will be the one-mile relay. This event has attracted lots of spectators and will be watched closely. The entry season for this is the appearance of Cheltenham High's champion team in the number. This team broke the record held for six years by Cheltenham High.

Field for Southern. Finally South Philadelphia High School has acquired an athletic field. For fourteen years the team has had to practice on the streets and in a place to practice. The new field is located at Twenty-fifth street and Passunk avenue.

This plot of ground was obtained through the efforts of the school and a group of students. It is a valuable business property and will be a fine place to practice. The school will have to play games at home for the first time.

Work will be started on the gymnasium, and a grand stand will be started. Capacity of 2000 is planned. Several other improvements will be made, and when the work is finished, the school will be modern in all respects.

SPEED RACES TOMORROW

Automobile and Motorcycle Races On at Pottstown Track

The first automobile and motorcycle speed races to be staged this season will be held tomorrow afternoon on the one-mile dirt track at Pottstown, Pa., when racing drivers of local fame will compete in a series of events which promise to draw out a long list of entries.

The motorcycle event will be an open ten-mile race for all races.

The automobile races are being put on under the sanction of the National Racing Association.

A new driver will be seen in Edward Allen, who will pilot Barney Oldfield's famous Popo-Bufford engine, while Joseph Hepp, of Bethlehem, with his Moore, will strive to divide honors with the best.

In all over twenty cars have been entered.

The ten-mile race for all automobiles is the top notch event.

RUTH DENIES FEUD RUMORS

Huggins Also Asserts There Was No Clash Between Them

Washington, May 6.—Miller Huggins and Babe Ruth have been kept busy denying rumors emanating from Boston which pictured Huggins slapping a heavy line on Ruth and appealing to the owners of the club to enforce it to preserve discipline. Both Huggins and Ruth absolutely deny there was any sort of a clash between them in Boston.

According to the Boston yarn, Huggins appealed to Colonel Huston for authority to suspend Ruth. It is a fact that Huston came to Washington Wednesday night.

"I did not come to Washington at the request of Huggins," declared the Yankee colonel. "Naturally, I called on him and I expect to attend the games here, but Huggins did not make any complaint of Ruth's conduct in Boston. Where the story came from is a mystery."

LEASE LOST! WE ARE FORCED TO VACATE

Our Entire Stock Must Be Sold! Not a Dollar's Worth Has Escaped the Terrific Cut In Price That Our Predicament Necessitates.

All Philadelphia Roused To Action By This Price-Slaughter! The Most Sensational Sale Of Clothing Ever Known!

As a result of the enormous increase in rental demanded of us for a new lease, and our inability to meet it and still maintain our reputation for value-giving which our very low overhead enabled us to build up, we are forced to vacate.

This has upset all our plans and calculations and caught us with an tremendously large stock on our hands on which we will be obliged to make enormous sacrifices in order to sell out everything before we hand over the keys to the landlord.

You can appreciate how serious a matter this is for us when you realize that we have been forced to reduce practically every dollar's worth of goods to 50c on the dollar and less!

The big response that this sale brought today, the first day, means that on Saturday the crowds will be overwhelming. In order to insure prompt service to all we will have 70 salesmen on hand tomorrow.

Bear in mind that every dollar's worth of merchandise in our big 13th street store, over $600,000 worth, is included in this sale. The prices on everything have been slashed right and left, with total disregard to cost or value. No matter what you select you are bound to save HALF or MORE on our former prices. Every dollar's worth is new Spring goods.

See our windows and you will declare that you have never seen such bargains in all your life.
